Women in Business, Supporting Women's Economic Empowerment

Tuesday 5th June 2012 to Wednesday 6th June 2012

A special ½ day session with the Australia Arab Chamber of Commerce and industry (AACCI) Forum and Expo Wednesday 6 June 2012.

The Australia Arab Chamber of Commerce and Industry (AACCI) is holding the 2012 Australia Arab Business Forum and Expo from Tuesday 5 June to Wednesday 6 June 2012 at the Sheraton on the Park, Sydney.

The principal objective of the event is promoting and facilitating two-way trade and investment between Australia and the Arab countries.

A key session in the program is titled Women in Business, Supporting Women's Economic Empowerment. This is a half-day session on Wednesday June 6,2012. This session is being held in conjunction with the leading business women's owners organisation, Women Chiefs of Enterprise International (Australia).

Confirmed guests include HE Rima Ahmeed Alaadeen, Jordanian Ambassador to Australia and New Zealand, and Justine Elliott, Australian Government, Parliamentary Secretary for Trade, Linda Dunkel, Elizabeth Broderick, Yasmina Azhari (Syria), Mahboba Rawi, Dr Leanne Piggott.

Women in Business-Australia and the Arab world.

1/3 of Australian businesses are operated by women-yet only 9% of SMEs operated by women export. In the GCC countries women control 22% of approx. $S00billion of the region's investment with between 14-30% of SMEs operated or owned by women.

There is a strong, growing and dynamic opportunity for Australian and Arab women to link together to grow their businesses and support other women to do the same.

The objectives of the Women in Business Session are to:

Promote stronger trade and investment partnerships between women in Australia and the Arab world.

Create unique opportunities for networking and mentoring among women across the Australian and Arab businesswomen's communities.

Expand the horizons of Australian and Arab businesswomen by presenting high-quality commercial intelligence.

Attend and be inspired and empowered.
